

Different purposes of practical work

- Basic skills - developing skills and techniques
- Observations – exploration, describing, sorting and classifying
- Illustrations – illustrating or demonstrating a concept/procedure
- Investigations – arising from play, chance events, statements from other children, children’s questions or new science learning. Children involved in making decisions about how to carry out their investigations.