

Reflection on the use of the outdoor environment

Questions you might ask when outdoors

Questions children might ask when outdoors:

What aspects are important to trigger curiosity? What opportunities does the outdoor environment offer to identify scientific insights, questions, ...?

Reflection on resources, materials and classroom environments

Resources and materials which triggered you
Resources and materials which children might like
What do you think are important characteristics of resources and materials to stimulate creativity?
Which classroom environments stimulate creativity?
What do you think are important characteristics for an indoor environment to stimulate creativity? What aspects in particular?